Quarterly Publication. 1st Issue January 2011

This new journal, CIVIL PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE will give clear, simple, unrivalled knowledge, practical guidance and an insight into civil procedure and include electronic practice in the Irish courts.

---

The contents of Issue 1 include relevant Articles, Judgment Notes, Statutory Instruments and Practice Directions.

Articles will be topical on issues arising in this area.

Judgment Notes will cover all judgments (and unreported) where possible in both civil practice and procedure law. Each note will endeavour to include a head note, facts and judgment held.

The Statutory Instruments and Practice Directions' section will begin with a short introduction of the contents within this section. In this first issue, we have concentrated on all the numerous amendments that have affected the Rules of the Courts in this jurisdiction in 2010.
